

NZ POLICE CONSTABULARY GROUP LIFE INSURANCE

Being a Police Officer is both challenging and rewarding, however there are always risks.

The NZ Police Constabulary Group Life Insurance Policy recognises these risks by providing Life and Critical Illness insurance cover.

Subsidised by the New Zealand Police and subject to the terms, conditions and exclusions, the Policy provides:

- 24-hour worldwide cover.
- A lump sum Benefit in the event of death or Critical Illness.

Administered by Police Welfare Fund Insurances Limited, the cover is underwritten by AIA New Zealand, part of the AIA Group, one of the world's leading life insurance companies.

Is this cover enough?

Everyone's need for life insurance is different. Sometimes NZ Police Constabulary Group Life Insurance benefits are not enough to cover your specific situation. That's where our Police Life Insurance Extra can help, by providing that additional cover, at very favourable rates. See: www.policeassn.org.nz

Enhancing the wellbeing of Police and their families

A summary of the cover provided by the NZ Police Constabulary Group Life Insurance is set out below. This is subject to change and you should refer to the Policy wording available on the Life Insurance page of the Police Association website: www.policeassn.org.nz, for details of the cover provided.

Words in italics are words that have had their meaning defined. These meanings are found under the Definitions section of the Policy, or within a section or Schedule of the Policy. Any word or expression defined under the Policy will have the same meaning wherever it appears. Some definitions are included on pages 4 and 5 for your information.

COVER PROVIDED

Life or Terminal Illness Benefit

A Life Benefit is payable upon the death or Diagnosis of a Terminal Illness of the Insured Person.

Critical Illness Benefit

A Critical Illness Benefit is provided for the Insured Person who, because of a Critical Illness leaves the Police under section 74 or 76 of the Policing Act 2008, providing:

- medical attention and/or advice from a Medical Practitioner about any symptom of the Critical Illness was sought before the age of 60; and
- the symptoms of the Critical Illness first manifested themselves after the date of joining the Police; and
- the Critical Illness is one of the defined conditions set out below:
 - Accidental HIV Infection
 - Alzheimer's Disease
 - Angioplasty
 - Aplastic Anaemia
 - Benign Tumour of the Brain or Spinal Cord
 - Blindness

 - Surgery to Aorta

24-Hour Worldwide Cover

Cover is provided anywhere in the world for all Insured Persons normally residing in New Zealand, and for those temporarily residing overseas (subject to continued premium payment) for up to 5 years.

BENEFIT PAYABLE

The Benefit payable to an Insured Person who is a member of the Police Welfare Fund Limited is set out on the amount insured table on page 5:

The Police Welfare Fund provides additional cover for its members. If you are not a member you are not eligible for the Partner Cover or Psychological Conditions Benefit and the Benefits payable are reduced to a maximum of 70% of the Benefits payable to Police Welfare Fund members.

EXTRA BENEFITS FOR POLICE WELFARE FUND MEMBERS

Partner Cover

Police Welfare Fund Limited members can nominate a Partner for life cover. The Benefit payable upon the death of a Partner is:

- 58% of the Insured Person's Life Benefit at the time of death of the Partner, or 60% of the Minimum Benefit set out on page 5, whichever is greater.

Psychological Conditions Benefit

Police Welfare Fund members are eligible for reasonable costs up to $1,200 for rehabilitation if they leave the Police because of a psychological condition. This recognises the need to support members who suffer from these conditions. NZ Police and Police Welfare Fund Limited meet these costs jointly and full details are available from Police Welfare Fund Insurances Limited.

TERM OF COVER

Unless terminated prior, cover ceases for all Insured Persons on their 70th birthday, or the date on which a Benefit is paid, or their last day of duty in the New Zealand Police.

BENEFIT NOMINATION FORM

It is very important the Benefit Nomination Form on page 7 is kept up to date. It nominates the recipient(s) to whom the Life Benefit will be paid in the event of your death and (for Police Welfare Fund members) provides a Life Benefit to you, in the event of your nominated Partner's death. If your personal circumstances change, a new form should be completed immediately. You can get a new form from the forms menu on: www.policeassn.org.nz or by contacting our Member Services Team.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q1 What is the definition of Partner under the Policy?

A A spouse, de facto partner or civil union partner (as those terms are defined in the Property (Relationships) Act 1976). Partner cover is only available to members of Police Welfare Fund Limited.

Q2 Does the Policy have any residual value if I decide to cancel?

A No, it is term cover and effectively your premium buys a sum assured. There are no maturity or surrender values.

Q3 What happens to my cover when I want to leave the Police?

A Your cover ceases on the later of:

- (i) the date you give notice (either oral or written) of your intention to leave the Police; or
- (ii) your Last Day of Duty.

Police Welfare Fund members can apply to continue cover under Police Life Insurance Extra through Police Welfare Fund General Insurances Limited. This is a very popular option as generally there is no requirement for a full medical check, critical conditions can continue to be covered and the premiums are very favourable. Please refer to the full version of the Policy for further details.

Q4 Am I covered while overseas?

A Yes. If you normally reside in New Zealand, cover is 24 hours a day, seven days a week, irrespective of where you are in the world. There are some requirements/restrictions when you are temporarily residing outside New Zealand. Please refer to the full version of the Policy for further details.

Q5 What's not covered under the Policy?

A There are specific exclusions under the Policy where a benefit is not payable. Please refer to the full version of the Policy for further details.

Q6 What do I do if my personal circumstances change (e.g. I get divorced)?

A Update your details as soon as possible on a replacement Benefit Nomination Form by printing a new form from: www.policeassn.org.nz or call the Member Services Team and they will send one to you. Post this back to Police Welfare Fund Insurances Limited. From 4pm the day the new form is received it replaces the old form held. You can check the latest Benefit Nomination Form held for you on your membership page of www.policeassn.org.nz.

Q7 Can I assign my cover to a financial institution as security for finance?

A Yes, a bank or other financial institution can be nominated as the beneficiary of the Policy proceeds. If there is any residual value (i.e. in excess of what you owe) the remainder of the proceeds are made payable to whoever is noted on your Benefit Nomination Form.

Q8 What happens to my cover while I'm on Leave Without Pay or secondment?

A If you are a Police Welfare Fund member you may have the option to continue your cover for up to 24 months until your return to paid Employment with the New Zealand Police. It is a good idea to continue your cover if you can.

If your cover is terminated, you can reapply on your return to the New Zealand Police, however you will be required to complete a personal statement providing Evidence of Insurability and exclusions may be applied. The employer subsidy ceases when you are on Leave Without Pay or secondment from the New Zealand Police, so the full premium would need to be paid by you for the term you are away from Police employment.

Arrangements must be made prior to you going on Leave Without Pay or secondment. Please contact the Member Services Team for details.

Q9 If both my Partner and I are Police Officers, how much are we each covered for?

A You are both covered for the Amount Insured under your own Policy. If your Partner is a Police Welfare Fund member, you are also covered under their Partner Life Benefit. Your total amount of Insurance Cover is the sum of both these covers.

Q10 Should my Partner die, who will receive the Partner Life Benefit payable?

A The Life Benefit under Partner Cover is payable to yourself as the Insured Person under the Policy. Partner Cover is only available to members of the Police Welfare Fund. You should ensure you nominate your Partner on the Police Group Life Insurance Benefit Nomination Form.

NZ POLICE CONSTABULARY GROUP LIFE INSURANCE BENEFIT NOMINATION FORM

Life insurance and the need for a Life Benefit to be paid is not something anyone likes to think about. However, if you die, it is important that you leave your affairs in order.

This Benefit Nomination Form (Form) allows you to decide who you will leave your Life Benefit to if you die. If you are a Police Welfare Fund member, it also asks you to provide the details of your Partner whose life will also be insured under the Partner Cover.

Police Welfare Fund Insurances Limited owns the Policy. Any Benefit under the Policy will be paid by the Policy Owner to whom you specify in the Form, instead of your Estate.

If we do not hold a Form, any Benefit under the Policy will be paid to your Estate.

This Form can be revoked (which means it can be cancelled or updated by you at any time) by completing a replacement Form accepted by the Policy Owner. Any replacement Form will take effect at 4pm on the date of receipt of the Form by the Policy Owner.

As you go through life, your personal circumstances may change. If they do, it is very important that you update this Benefit Nomination Form. It remains in force until you replace it with another Benefit Nomination Form. Visit www.policeassn.org.nz for a new form.

Please read these notes in conjunction with completing the Benefit Nomination Form.

A. Your Full Name - The Insured Person covered under the Policy.

B. Under the New Zealand Police Constabulary Group Life Insurance Policy, if you are a member of the Police Welfare Fund, your nominated Partner has Partner Cover to the value of 60% of your life Insurance Cover.

If you are not a member of the Police Welfare Fund you will not have a Partner Benefit and you do not need to complete section B. (See Extra Benefits for Police Welfare Fund members on page 2 for details.)

Any nominated Partner is only covered up to the age of 70 years.

For the purposes of this Benefit a Partner is deemed to be a spouse, de facto partner or civil union partner (as those terms are defined in the Property (Relationships) Act 1976) of a Category A Insured.

Where a member is married or in a civil union, and in the absence of nomination of another person for the purposes of this Policy, the member's Partner shall be the Partner for the purposes of the Partner Benefit.

NOTE: The Policy Owner will accept the nomination of a former Partner where there are dependent children from that relationship, assuming that on the death of the Partner the Insured Person will then have the responsibility for care of the dependants from that relationship. Members that wish to do this should make application in writing, explaining the circumstances to the Policy Owner. In such circumstances this Form will then need updating once the children are independent (i.e. 19 years of age) of the former Partner.

C. This instructs the Policy Owner whom to pay your Life Benefit to. Any number of person(s) or mortgagee(s) may be nominated to receive your Life Benefit. The person(s) nominated do not need to be related to you.

i) In respect of payments to be made to mortgagee(s) specify amounts (preferably the current dollar amount owing on the mortgage) if possible. When nominating mortgagee(s) you must also nominate any other person(s) in section (ii) to receive any balance of Life Benefit that remains after the mortgagee(s) have been paid.

Example

(i)

Full name of Mortgagee(s)	Address	Amount for Mortgagee
Mortgagee: The ANZ Bank	Willis Street, Wellington	$175,000

ii) If you have completed (i), now specify person(s) to whom any balance of Life Benefit should be paid. If (i) is not applicable, specify the person(s) to whom the entire Life Benefit should be paid.

(You must use whole percentages for the amount of Life Benefit each person or mortgagee should receive.)

Example

(ii)

Full name of Person(s)	Address	Percentage of Death Benefit
Person: Mary Jones	22 Tui Street, Tawa, Wellington	80 %
Person: Harry Jones	22 Tui Street, Tawa, Wellington	20 %

All percentages must be whole and add up to exactly 100%
